SUMMARY

Professor Hyun Bang Shin is an internationally recognised scholar in urban studies whose research has profoundly influenced critical urban theory and practice, particularly in non-Western contexts. His work spans four key areas: gentrification, urban growth politics, urban struggles, and the circulation of urbanism. By challenging conventional perspectives, Professor Shin has contributed to reshaping the understanding of contemporary urban transformation, emphasising the socio-political dynamics of cities in rapidly developing regions. From 2018 to 2023, he served as Director of the Saw Swee Hock Southeast Asia Centre at LSE, fostering interdisciplinary research on Southeast Asia. He was the Editor of the International Journal of Urban and Regional Research from 2021 to 2024 and a trustee of the Urban Studies Foundation from 2016 to 2023, contributing to global urban scholarship and mentorship. Since 2009, he has co-organised The Urban Salon, a London-based forum for architecture, cities, and international urbanism. Professor Shin's global impact is reflected in his ranking among the top 2% of the most highly cited scholars (Stanford/Elsevier, 2023, 2024). As of the end of December 2024, his Google Scholar exhibits a h-index of 31 and an i10-index of 45. Professor Shin currently serves as Head of the Department of Geography and Environment at LSE.
